The next day was Sunday again.

The caterpillar ate through one nice green leaf,

That night he had a stomachache!

and after that he felt much better.

Now he wasn't hungry any more – and he wasn't a little caterpillar anymore.

He was a big, fat caterpillar.

He built a small house, called a cocoon, around himself.

He stayed inside for more than two weeks.

Then he nibbled a hole in the cocoon, pushed his way out and...

he was a beautiful butterfly!
